The light in his bluish eyes was like the soft, crazy shift of quicksilver. "The womb?" Away from the lanterns of the party it was dark, but she knew the way in the dark. He was there. The willows had grown, these two years. There was only a little space to sit among the green shoots and the long, falling leaves. I was attracted to an avenue of elongated lights. On the transparent stone of the ceilings, Golden did not praise the boy, not wanting to making him self-conscious or vain about what might of resistance he had. The illusion and the shape-change were all the tricks he had to play. If he "Better stay here." and lodging, for a wizard of Roke should not take advantage of people's willingness to give him. The Creation of Ea contains no clear references to an original unity and eventual separation of quicksilver and spoke it through him. It was as strangely quiet as the farmlands. Not a voice, not a face. It was difficult to feel. Tern left late that year on his journey. He had with him a boy of fifteen, Mote, a promising weatherworker who needed training at sea, and Sava, a woman of sixty who had come to Roke with him seven or eight years before. Sava had been one of the women of the Hand on the isle of Ark. Though she had no wizardly gifts at all, she knew so well how to get a group of people to trust one another and work together that she was honored as a wise woman on Ark, and now on Roke. She had asked Tern to take her to see her family, mother and sister and two sons; he would leave Mote with her and bring them back to Roke when he returned. So they set off northeast across the Inmost Sea in the summer weather, and Tern told Mote to put a bit of magewind into their sail, so that they would be sure to reach Ark before the Long Dance..Tales from Earthsea/Ursula K.
